DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgments

1. Acknowledgment is made of the change of address and amendment filed 8/7/02.

Election/Restrictions

2. Claims 18, 23, and 26 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species B, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 2.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 14-17, 24, and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yu (5,428,022) and in further view of Namiki (6,428,022).

Yu discloses a skateboard comprising front and rear footboards (20), an elongated strut (10), and pivot joints (11) for allowing the foot boards to pivot relative to the strut, as shown in figures 1-4. Yu does not disclose the skateboard as only having a single wheel at either end rather than a pair of wheels. Namiki does disclose a skateboard (S) as having only a single wheel (18,20) at either end of the skateboard in order to allow increased tilting of the board, as shown in figures 1-4. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have provided the pivoting skateboard of Yu with the single wheels of Namiki in order to allow the skateboard to tilt at greater angles allow a decrease in turning radius.

5. Claims 19-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yu and Namiki, as applied to claims 14-17, 24, and 25, and in further view of Sheldon (4,082,306).

Neither Yu nor Namiki disclose the strut as being a torsion bar. Sheldon does disclose a skateboard as having a torsion bar 30 for allowing torsional rotation between front and rear footboards (10,11), as shown in figures 1-4. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have provided the pivoting skateboard of Yu and Namiki with the torsion bar of Sheldon in order to allow the footboards to tilt relative to each other and further decrease turning radius.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 14-26 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. The applicant's amendment has caused the examiner to add the Namiki reference to the rejection.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Tipton, Killian, and Attey all disclose skateboards with only two wheels.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
